

---

Lithuanian Burns Himself On a Street in Moscow

Associated Press

MOSCOW, April 26—A Lithuanian man was hospitalized after he set himself on fire today in central Moscow, Soviet authorities said.

The man, identified by the official Tass news agency as Stanislavas Jamaitis, was in the intensive care unit at Sklifasovski Hospital with second- and third-degree burns. He made no political statements and displayed no signs, Tass said.